

OLD COURT HOTEL

THE OLD COURT HOTEL

The Old Court Hotel is a family-run hotel with 18 rooms, four suites, a three bedroom self catering cottage and a 7 bedroom farmhouse, set in the Grade II Listed 16th Century ancestral home of the Gwillim family and Elizabeth Gwillim Simcoe, the remarkable wife and companion of John Graves Simcoe, the first Governor General of Upper Canada and founder of the City of Toronto. We also have an à la carte restaurant and two function rooms for weddings, conferences and parties, as well as our well stocked Cotswold Bar.

We have everything you need to enjoy a peaceful and relaxing visit to Symonds Yat, and provide an ideal base from which to explore the Wye Valley and Forest of Dean all year round. There is so much quality, heritage and interest surrounding the hotel which we hope will compliment your visit and we promise to provide a friendly welcome, fine food and a comfortable atmosphere.

Ordering bar food here at The Old Court Hotel is informal. Please find a seat, decide what you would like, then come to the bar to order and tell us where you are sitting. Ensure you know whether you will be ordering homemade chips, mashed potato or new potatoes. Please pick up your cutlery and sauces on your way back. We will bring your food to you. We do not do fast food... we do great food as fast as we can! Thanks and enjoy your meal with us!

Our Food is sourced from excellent suppliers and is freshly prepared for you once you have ordered. We incorporate high standards with traditional values. Our thanks to Risbury Court Farm and Madgetts Farm for providing us with our Pedigree Hereford Beef, traditionally reared Lamb and Organic Duck. They are farms which have heritage and principles – just like our food.
